

A story may speak more strongly than a sermon about God's view on cultural issues.

Look at the following list of stories which illustrate the concept of matching a story to a Biblical, cultural or worldview issue:

God's Promise to Abraham (Illustrates the concept of God's relationship with man. God is not distant and unknowable.)	Genesis 12:1-9, Gen. 17:1-8
The Ten Commandments (Illustrates that God is Holy)	Exodus 19:16-20:17
Saul at Endor (Illustrates the evil of witchcraft and consulting mediums and God's view of these things)	I Samuel 28
Abraham is Tested (Illustrates Blood sacrifice)	Genesis 22:1-19
Elijah is fed by the Ravens (Illustrates that God is our Provider)	I Kings 17:1-6
Solomon's Dream (Illustrates the significance of dreams)	I Kings 3:1-15
The Book of the Law is Found (Illustrates idolatry and God's view of idols made by man)	2 Kings 22 and 23
Naaman Healed of Leprosy (Illustrates Healing and the Power of God)	2 Kings 4
The Golden Calf (Illustrates Idolatry and God's Hatred of Idolatry)	Exodus 32
The Lost Son (Illustrates Forgiveness)
Story of Lazarus (Illustrates the Power of God)	John 11:1-43
Paul in Athens (Illustrates the religious nature of certain cultures)	Acts 17:16-34
Bricks without Straw (Illustrates oppression and social caste, God's view of equality)	Exodus 5:-6:18
Peter's Vision on Food (Illustrates God's view on Food Taboos)	Acts 11:1-18

See the Lesson Plan for ideas on how to assist your audience to understand these concepts with an Activity. Do not give the answers, but, rather, assign the list of Biblical stories to groups of 2 participants. Have each group choose which barriers, cultural issues or Biblical truths are addressed by each story. Discuss how the story focuses on a key issue and could help change worldview.
